(c) is a traditional or cultural leader as defined in clause (6) of article 246 of the Constitution;

(d) has been adjudged or otherwise declared bankrupt under any law in force in Uganda and has not been discharged; or

(e) is under a sentence of death or a sentence of imprisonment exceeding nine months imposed by any competent court without the option of a fine.

(3) A person elected to Parliament when he or she is a member of a local government council or holds a public office shall resign the office before assuming the office of member of Parliament.

(4) For the purposes of paragraph (c) of sub-section (1) of this section, a person shall qualify as having the equivalent of the advanced level formal education only if he or she holds a certificate issued to him or her by the Uganda National Examinations Board notice of which has been published in the Gazette.

(5) The Uganda National Examinations Board shall, for purposes of sub-section (1) of this section, after informing the Minister responsible for education, publish in the Gazette from time to time, notice of the list of qualifications considered by it to be equivalent to advanced level of formal education.

(6) A certificate issued by the Uganda National Examinations Board under any other enactment, to the same effect as a certificate required to be obtained under subsection (4) of this section and notice of which is published in the Gazette, shall be sufficient for the purposes of paragraph (c) of subsection (1) of this section.

(7) A certificate issued by the Uganda National Examinations Board under this section shall be sufficient in respect of any election for which the same qualification is required.

(8) For the avoidance of doubt, if a candidate has an advanced level certificate or qualifications higher than the prescribed qualification, then, there shall be no need for the verification of his or her papers by Uganda National Examinations Board.

(9) A person holding a public office, or a member of a Local Government Council or a Commission established under the Constitution, wishing to be a candidate shall apply for leave of absence at least sixty days before the expiry of the term of Parliament.

(10) Where any person intends to stand for election he or she shall not accept office as an election officer.

(11) Where a person holding a public office wishes to be a candidate he or she shall, before proceeding on leave, relinquish any vehicle or office equipment in his or her custody belonging to his or her employer.

(12) For the purposes of enforcing this section the Commission shall, by writing require any candidate to state in writing the facilities ordinarily attached to any office held by that person to which subsection (11) applies or by virtue of that office; and the candidate shall comply with the requirement.

(13) Every employer to whom subsection (9) relates shall, upon receiving an application by an employee, grant to the employee leave of absence with pay, or where the employee has not earned leave, without pay, to seek nomination as a candidate and to be a candidate for election, and for such period as may be requested by the employee.

avoidance of doubt, include an employee of any Commission established by the Constitution.

(15) This section applies with the necessary modifications, to an employee of a statutory corporation or of a company in which the Government owns a controlling interest as it applies to a public officer.

6. Tenure of office of members of Parliament

(1) A member of Parliament shall vacate his or her seat in Parliament —

- (a) if he or she resigns his or her office in writing signed by him or her and addressed to the Speaker;
- (b) if such circumstances arise that if that person were not a member of Parliament would cause that person to be disqualified for election as a member of Parliament under article 80 of the Constitution;
- (c) subject to clause (4) of article 77 of the Constitution, upon dissolution of Parliament;
- (d) if that person is absent from fifteen sittings of Parliament without permission in writing of the Speaker during any period when Parliament is continuously meeting and is unable to offer satisfactory explanation to the relevant Parliamentary Committee for his or her absence;
- (e) if that person is found guilty by the appropriate tribunal of violation of the Leadership Code of Conduct and the punishment imposed is or includes the vacation of the office of a member of Parliament;
- (f) if recalled by the electorate in his or her constituency in accordance with the Constitution;
- (g) if that person leaves the political party for which he or she stood as a candidate for election to Parliament to join another party or to remain in Parliament as an independent member;
- (h) if, having been elected to Parliament as an independent candidate, that person joins a political party; or
- (i) if that person is appointed a public officer.

(2) Notwithstanding paragraphs (g) and (h) of subsection (1) of this section, membership of a coalition government of which his or her original political party forms part, shall not affect the status of any member of Parliament.

(3) The provisions of paragraphs (g) and (h) of subsection (1) and of subsection (2) of this section shall only apply during any period when the multiparty system of government is in operation.

7. Right and procedure of recall

(1) Subject to the provisions of this section, the electorate of any constituency and of any special interest group referred to in article 78 of the Constitution have the right to recall their member of Parliament before the expiry of the term of Parliament.

(2) A member of Parliament may be recalled from that office on any of the following grounds—

- (a) physical or mental incapacity rendering that member incapable of performing the functions of the office; or
- (b) misconduct or misbehaviour likely to bring hatred, ridicule, contempt or disrepute to the office; or
- (c) persistent deserting of the electorate without reasonable cause.

(3) The recall of a member of Parliament shall be initiated by a petition in writing setting out the grounds relied on and signed by at least two-thirds of the registered voters of the constituency or of the special interest group referred to in subsection (1) of this section, and shall be delivered to the Speaker.

(4) On receipt of the petition referred to in subsection (3) of this section, the Speaker shall, within seven days require the Electoral Commission to conduct a public inquiry into the matters alleged in the petition and the Electoral Commission shall expeditiously conduct the necessary inquiry and report its findings to the Speaker.

(5) The Speaker shall—

- (a) declare the seat vacant, if the Electoral Commission reports that it is satisfied from the inquiry, with the genuineness of the petition; or
- (b) declare immediately that the petition was unjustified, if the Commission reports that it is not satisfied with the genuineness of the petition.

(6) For the purposes of any inquiry under subsection (4) of this section, the Commission shall be assisted by counsel appointed by the Attorney-General.

(7) The member of Parliament to whom the inquiry relates is entitled to appear in his or her own defence and to be represented by counsel of his or her choice.

(8) In the case of an allegation of physical or mental incapacity under paragraph (a) of subsection (2), the Commission shall request the professional head of the medical services of Uganda to appoint a medical board to examine the member of Parliament and to submit a report to the Commission for submission to the Speaker together with the Commission's report.

(9) The member of Parliament shall immediately be notified by the Commission of the appointment of the medical board and the member shall submit himself or herself to the medical board within seven days.

(10) If the medical board after the expiration of the seven days referred to in subsection (9) reports to the Commission that the member of Parliament has failed or refused to submit himself or herself to the board for examination under this section the Commission shall after ascertaining the circumstances of such failure or refusal so report to the Speaker.

(11) The Speaker may suspend from membership of Parliament a person to whom subsection (10) applies.

(12) Parliament may, by resolution supported by a majority of all members of Parliament, resolve that a person to whom subsection (10) applies shall cease to be a member.

(13) A person in respect of whom a resolution has been passed under subsection (12) shall cease to be a member and shall be taken to have been recalled under paragraph (a) of subsection (2) of this section.

(14) In the case of an allegation under paragraph (b) of subsection (2), the Commission shall request the Chief Justice to nominate a judicial officer to hear and determine the allegation and report his or her findings to the Commission as soon as possible and the Chief Justice shall nominate a judicial officer accordingly.

(15) The Commission shall, upon receipt of the findings of the judicial officer, embody them in its report to the Speaker.

(16) In the case of an allegation under paragraph (c) of subsection (2) the Commission shall, subject to this section, conduct such investigation and inquiry as may be just and practicable, in accordance with this section and shall report its findings to the Speaker.

(17) Subject to the provisions of this section, the Minister shall, with the approval of Parliament, by regulations, prescribe any additional procedure necessary to be followed for the recall of a member of Parliament.

8. Determination of questions of membership

(1) The High Court shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine any question whether—

(a) a person has been validly elected a member of Parliament or the seat of a member of Parliament has become vacant; or

(b) a person has been validly elected as Speaker or Deputy Speaker or having been so elected, has vacated that office.

(2) A person aggrieved by the determination of the High Court under this section may appeal to the Court of Appeal.

(3) Subject to the provisions of this Act in relation to election petitions, and to the provisions of article 137 of the Constitution, the Attorney-General may petition the High Court under article 86 of the Constitution for the determination of the question referred to in that article.

(4) If upon application to the Attorney-General in writing signed by not less than fifty registered voters stating that a question referred to in subsection (1) has arisen stating the ground for coming to that conclusion the Attorney-General fails to petition to the High Court within thirty days after receipt of the application, any one or more of the persons who made the application may petition the High Court for determination of the question.

(5) The decision of the Court of Appeal on an appeal under this section is final.

(6) The High Court or the Court of Appeal shall proceed expeditiously to hear and determine any question or as the case may be, any appeal before it under this section and may for that purpose suspend any other matter pending before it.

(7) In any case the High Court shall determine a question under this section within twelve months after the petition in relation to the question was lodged in that Court.

PART IV—INFORMATION TO RETURNING OFFICERS AND SECRECY.

9. Information to be given to returning officers

(1) Whenever it is considered necessary and, in any case, immediately after the date of an election is appointed, the Commission shall transmit to every returning officer—

- (a) sufficient copies of this Act, and such instructions prepared by the Commission, as are required for the proper conduct of an election by the returning officer and to enable the returning officer to supply to each election officer a copy of those instructions as each election officer may require;
- (b) copies of the voters' roll for each polling station within the electoral district;
- (c) sufficient blank report books and other election materials; and
- (d) sufficient funds to cover all the expenses to be incurred by the returning officer in carrying out the electoral process.

(2) The Commission shall also transmit to each returning officer as soon as practicable, after nomination days, a sufficient number of ballot papers for each constituency within the electoral district of the returning officer in any case not later than three days before the polling day.

10. Secrecy required of election officers and others

(1) Every candidate, election officer, clerk, candidate's, agent or other person in attendance at a polling station during the counting of the votes shall maintain and aid in maintaining the secrecy of the voting, and no candidate, officer, clerk, candidate's agent or other person shall—

- (a) at the polling station, interfere with, or attempt to interfere with, a voter when marking the ballot paper, or otherwise attempt to obtain information with respect to the candidate for whom any voter is about to vote or has voted;
- (b) at the counting of the votes, attempt to ascertain the number on the counterfoil of any ballot paper;
- (c) at any time, communicate any information with respect to the manner in which any ballot paper has been marked in his or her presence in the polling station;
- (d) at any time or place, directly or indirectly, induce or endeavour to induce any voter to show his or her ballot paper after he or she has marked it, so as to make known to any person the name of the candidate for or against whom the voter has cast his or her vote;
- (e) at a polling station, induce or endeavour to induce any voter to vote for a person other than the person of his or her choice;
- (f) at any time, communicate to any person any information obtained at a polling station with respect to the candidate for whom any voter at the polling station is about to vote or has voted; or
- (g) at the counting of the votes, attempt to obtain any information or communicate any information obtained at the counting with respect to the candidate for whom any vote is given in any particular ballot paper.

(2) No candidate, election officer, candidate's agent or other person on duty at the polling station shall, except for a purpose authorised by law, communicate to any person any information as to—

- (a) the name of the voter who has or has not applied for a ballot paper or voted at a polling station; or
- (b) the number on the voters' register of the voter who has or has not applied for a ballot paper or voted at a polling station.

(3) A person who has undertaken under section 38 of this Act to assist a blind, illiterate or other voter with disability to vote, shall not communicate at any time to another person information as to the candidate for whom the assisted voter intends to vote or has voted, or as to the number, if any, on the ballot paper given for the use of that voter.

(4) A person shall, before assuming the duties of election officer take and subscribe the oath in Form EO specified in the Second Schedule to this Act.

(5) Any person who contravenes subsection (1), (2) or (3) commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding five currency points or imprisonment not exceeding six months or both.

(6) Any election officer who, contrary to the oath taken under subsection (4) of this section reveals to any person any matter that has come to his or her knowledge or notice as a result of his or her appointment, commits an offence and is liable to a fine not exceeding ten currency points or imprisonment not exceeding six months or both.

PART V—DISTRICT WOMEN REPRESENTATIVES AND SPECIAL INTEREST GROUPS.

11. District women representatives and special interest groups

(1) As required by paragraph (b) of clause (1) of article 78 of the Constitution, there shall be one woman representative in Parliament for every district.

(2) There shall be the following representatives of special interest groups in Parliament for the purposes of paragraph (c) of clause (1) of article 78 of the constitution—

(2) Where a candidate is a Minister or holds any other political office, he or she shall, during the campaign period, restrict the use of the official facilities ordinarily attached to his or her office to the execution of his or her official duties.

(3) For the purposes of enforcing this section the Commission shall, by writing require any candidate to state in writing the facilities ordinarily attached to any office held by that person to which subsection (2) applies and the candidate shall comply with the requirement.

(4) This section applies with the necessary modifications to an employee of a statutory corporation or company in which the government owns a controlling interest and a member of a commission or committee established by the Constitution as it applies to a public officer.

27. Where one of only two candidates dies

(1) In a constituency, where only two candidates stand validly nominated after the close of nominations, and before the closing of the polls one of them dies or ceases to be a candidate by reason of his or her ceasing to be qualified for election, the Commission shall postpone the polling in the constituency and fix fresh nomination days for the nomination of candidates.

(2) Where fresh nomination days are fixed under subsection (1), any candidate previously validly nominated shall not be required to be re-nominated and only candidates who did not go through the nomination process during the first nomination days shall tender their nomination papers to the returning officer.

(3) An election arising out of a postponement effected under subsection (1) shall, as far as possible, be conducted in accordance with this Act.

PART VIII—VOTING AND VOTING PROCEDURE.

28. Distribution of election materials

Within forty-eight hours before polling day, every returning officer shall furnish each presiding officer in the district with—

- (a) a sufficient number of ballot papers to cover the number of voters likely to vote at the polling station for which the presiding officer is responsible;
- (b) a statement showing the number of ballot papers supplied under paragraph (a) with the serial numbers indicated in the statement; and
- (c) any other necessary materials for the voters to mark the ballot papers and complete the voting process.

29. Publication of list of polling stations and candidates

(1) The Commission shall, by notice in the Gazette publish—

- (a) a list of the polling stations in each constituency; and

(b) a list of the names of the candidates nominated for each constituency in alphabetical order with surnames first.

(2) The Commission shall also forward each list referred to in subsection (1) to all returning officers; and the returning officers shall ensure that the lists relevant to each constituency are published widely in that constituency.

30. Polling stations and voting time

(1) Every polling station shall, as far as possible, be located in an open ground, or where there is no open ground, in large premises of convenient access, having an outside door for the admittance of voters, and, if possible, another door through which voters may leave after voting and the polling station shall, as far as possible be such as to facilitate access by persons with disabilities and the aged.

(2) At every polling station, polling time shall commence at seven o'clock in the morning and close at five o'clock in the afternoon.

(3) Any person registered as a voter and whose name appears in the voters' roll of a polling station and who holds a valid voters' card shall be entitled to vote at the polling station.

(4) If at the official hour of closing the poll in subsection (2) there are any voters in the polling station, or in the line of voters under subsection (3) of section 31 who are qualified to vote and have not been able to do so, the polling station shall be kept open to enable them to vote; but no person who is not actually present at the polling station or in the line of voters at the official hour of closing shall be allowed to vote, even if the polling station is still open when he or she arrives.

31. Polling and polling procedure

(1) Voting at every election shall be by secret ballot using one ballot box at each polling station for all candidates in accordance with this Act.

(2) No presiding officer shall inquire about or attempt to see, for whom a voter intends to vote; and any person who contravenes this subsection commits an offence and is liable to a fine not exceeding thirty currency points or imprisonment not exceeding one year or both.

(3) On polling day, all voters intending to vote shall form one line commencing backward from a point each at least twenty metres away from the table at which each voter is to place the authorised mark of choice on the ballot paper.

(4) Voters who have cast their votes and all other persons in the vicinity of the polling station other than election officers, candidates, candidates' agents and observers shall stand or sit at least twenty metres away from the table mentioned in subsection (3).

(5) Subject to subsection (7), at every polling station there shall be positioned—

- (a) a table where every voter shall report for identification in the voters' roll and collection of a ballot paper;
- (b) a second table positioned at least fifteen metres from the first with an ink pad, two pens, each pen being attached to the table with a string measuring about one metre in length, where every voter shall—
 - (i) fix a tick with a pen or mark with a thumb print in the space provided in the box against the picture or in the picture of the candidate of his or her choice; and
 - (ii) fold the ballot paper, lengthwise to enable it to be deposited in the slot of the ballot box;
- (c) a third table located at least ten metres away from the second and on top of which shall rest a ballot box into which every voter shall deposit the folded ballot paper in the full view of all present; and
- (d) a further table located at least ten metres from the ballot box where every voter, after depositing the ballot paper into the ballot box, shall proceed and have the thumb on the voters' right hand, dipped into indelible ink to indicate that the voter has cast the ballot.

(6) Where for the purposes of paragraph (d) of subsection (5)—

- (a) the voter has no thumb on the right hand, the process specified in that paragraph shall be applied to the finger nearest to the position of the thumb on the voters' right hand; or
- (b) the voter has no right hand the process shall be applied to the left hand; or
- (c) a voter has no fingers on the left or right hand, the voter may dip the tip of any hand into the indelible ink; or
- (d) the voter has no hands, the process shall be applied to any other conspicuous part of the voter's body as a polling assistant may determine.

(7) The presiding officer at each polling station shall, at the commencement of the poll and in the full view of all present, open the first ballot box, turn it upside down with the open top facing down to ensure to the satisfaction of everyone present, that the ballot box is devoid of any contents and after that, place the ballot box on the table under paragraph (c) of subsection (5).

(8) Where more than one ballot box is used after the first is filled, the procedure prescribed in subsection (7) shall be followed prior to the placing on the table, of any additional ballot box.

(9) For the purposes of subsection (5), “table” includes a desk, a box, a chair, a stool and any other object with a hard and smooth surface that can be used as a table.

32. No person to vote more than once

(1) Except when required under section 11 of this Act, no person shall vote or attempt to vote more than once at any election.

(2) For the purposes of ensuring that no voter casts a vote more than once, a presiding officer or a polling assistant shall, before issuing a ballot paper, inspect the fingers of any voter in order to ascertain whether or not the voter has been marked with indelible ink in accordance with section 31; and the presiding officer or a polling assistant, as the case may be, shall refuse to issue a ballot paper to that voter if the presiding officer or polling assistant has reasonable grounds to believe that the voter has already voted or if the voter refuses to be inspected under this subsection.

33. Polling agents of candidates

(1) A candidate may be present in person or through his or her representatives or polling agents at each polling station for the purposes of safeguarding the interests of the candidate with regard to the polling process.

(2) Not more than two representatives or polling agents shall be appointed by a candidate under subsection (1) and the appointments shall be in writing addressed to the presiding officer of the polling station.

(3) Representatives or polling agents appointed under subsection (2) shall report to the presiding officer of the polling station on polling day.

34. No delay in voting

(1) Every voter shall vote in accordance with section 31 of this Act without undue delay and may leave the polling station as soon as his or her ballot paper has been put into the ballot box under that section.

(2) The presiding officer may allow expectant mothers, old or sickly voters or voters with disabilities and persons required for essential duties to vote without waiting in the line of voters.

35. Procedure for handing ballot paper to voter

(1) A voter wishing to obtain a ballot paper, for the purpose of voting, shall produce his or her voters’ card to the presiding officer or polling assistant at the table under paragraph (a) of subsection (5) of section 31.

(2) If the presiding officer or polling assistant is satisfied that the voter’s name and number indicated in the voter’s card correspond to the voter’s name and number in the voter’s register for the polling station, he or she shall stamp with an official stamp provided by the Commission the voter’s card in the space provided in the card for stamping to indicate that the voter has voted.

(3) The presiding officer or polling assistant shall place a tick against the voter's name in the voters' roll for the polling station.

(4) The presiding officer or polling assistant shall write the name of the polling station in the space provided on top of the ballot paper before handing the ballot paper to the person claiming to vote.

(5) Subject to section 40 of this Act, no person shall be permitted to vote at a polling station unless the person's name appears in the voter's roll for that polling station.

(6) Any person who contravenes subsection (5) commits an offence.

36. Where a voter spoils ballot paper

A voter who has inadvertently dealt with the ballot paper delivered to him or her under paragraph (a) of subsection (5) of section 31 in such a manner that it has become impracticable to use it, shall return it to the presiding officer who shall—

(a) deface it by making two diagonal lines across it and writing the word "spoilt" on it; and

(b) deliver another ballot paper to the voter.

37. Where two voters appear under same name

(1) Where a person represents himself or herself to be a particular voter and applies for a ballot paper after another person has voted in the name or number of that person, the second person shall only be entitled to receive a ballot paper and to vote after making before the presiding officer the declaration of identity, in Form ID in the Second Schedule to this Act and otherwise establishing his or her identity to the satisfaction of the presiding officer.

(2) In any case referred to in subsection (1), the presiding officer shall enter in the copy of the voters' register or the voters' roll, opposite the name of the voter—

(a) a note of the voter having voted on a second ballot paper issued under the same name;

(b) the fact of the declaration of identity having been made; and

(c) any objections made on behalf of any of the candidates.

(3) Any person who makes any statement in a declaration under this section knowing it to be false or in respect of which he or she is reckless whether it is true or false, commits an offence and is liable to a fine not exceeding thirty currency points or imprisonment not exceeding one year or both.

38. Assistance to illiterate voters and other voters with disability

(1) Where a voter is by reason of blindness, illiteracy, old age or any other disability unable to fix the authorised mark of choice on the ballot paper, that voter may report at the polling station accompanied by a person of his or her choice to assist the voter to fix the authorised mark of choice on the ballot paper if necessary, on the voter's behalf or the voter may, subject to subsection (4) of this section, request another person present at the polling station to assist that voter for the purpose.

(2) It shall be lawful for any member of a voter's family to assist a voter under subsection (1) notwithstanding the fact that the former is below the age of eighteen years.

(3) A presiding officer shall refuse to allow a person to assist a voter to vote unless that officer is satisfied that it is permitted under subsection (1).

(4) An election officer, a candidate's agent or an observer at any polling station, is not permitted to assist any voter with disability under subsection (1).

(5) No person is authorised to assist any voter to mark the ballot paper under subsection (1) unless the voter has voluntarily requested that assistance.

(6) A person who—

(a) pretends to have a disability for the purposes of subsection (1) when he or she does not;

(b) contravenes subsection (5) of this section, commits an offence.

39. Special procedure for voting of persons in institutions and restricted areas

The Commission may make special provision for the taking of the votes of patients in hospitals, or persons admitted in sanatoria or homes for the aged and similar institutions and also for persons in restricted areas such as soldiers and other security personnel, but the Commission shall publish in the Gazette a list of the restricted areas under this section except that any area provided for voting for members of the Uganda Peoples' Defence Forces shall be outside any barracks.

40. Factors which may not prevent a person from voting

(1) The claim of a person to vote at any election shall not be rejected by reason only—

(a) that one of the person's names has been omitted from the voters' register or from the voters' roll; or

(b) of the entry in the voters' register or in the voters' roll of a wrong village or of a wrongly spelt name, if, in the opinion of the presiding officer, the person is sufficiently identified.

(2) The claim of a female voter to vote at any polling station shall not be rejected by reason only that she has changed her surname by reason of marriage and that the change has not been reflected in the voters' register or the voters' roll for the polling station.

41. Returning officers to have powers of justice of the peace

During an election and while the polls are open, every returning officer and presiding officer is a keeper of the peace and has all the powers of a justice as the peace, and he or she may—

- (a) require the assistance of a member of the Uganda Police Force or other persons present to aid him or her in maintaining peace and good order at the polling station; or
- (b) warn or arrest or cause, by verbal order, to be arrested, and place or cause to be placed in the custody of any police officer or other person authorised by law, any person disturbing the peace and good order at the polling station; or
- (c) cause any arrested person to be imprisoned under an order signed by him or her until not later than an hour after the closure of the poll.

42. Presiding officer to appoint election constable

(1) Any presiding officer, except a presiding officer for a polling station located in an urban area, may, in the absence of a police officer appoint another person present as an election constable to maintain order in the polling station throughout polling day where the presiding officer deems the services of an election constable to be absolutely necessary.

(2) A presiding officer may only appoint a person other than a police officer to be an election constable under subsection (1) when there is actual or threatened disorder or, when it is likely that a large number of voters will seek to vote at the same time.

(3) There shall be appointed at every polling centre established under subsection (2) of section 33 of the Commission Act one person in order to ensure the orderly and prompt entrance of the voters into their proper polling station within the centre.

(4) When an election constable has been appointed by a presiding officer, the constable shall take an oath in the Form OC in the Second Schedule to this Act before commencing to discharge his or her responsibilities as election constable.

(5) Every presiding officer who has appointed an election constable at a polling station shall state publicly his or her reasons for making the appointment in the space provided for that purpose in the polling report book.

(6) A presiding officer of a polling station located in an urban area may, where required for the purposes of subsection (2), appoint a police officer to maintain order in the polling station.

(7) In this section "urban area" means a town, municipality or the City of Kampala.

43. Arms and ammunition prohibited at polling stations

(1) No person shall arm himself or herself during any part of polling day, with any arms or ammunition or approach within one kilometre of a polling station, with arms and ammunition unless called upon to do so by lawful authority or where he or she is ordinarily entitled by virtue of his or her office to carry arms.

(b) decide every question arising out of the objection.

(2) Every objection recorded under subsection (1) shall be numbered and a corresponding number placed on the back of the ballot paper to which it relates and the ballot paper shall be initialled by the presiding officer and it shall be witnessed by the polling assistants and candidates' agents.

(3) The decision of a presiding officer in respect of an objection raised under subsection (1) is final, subject to reversal only on recount or on a petition questioning the election return.

50. Votes to be treated as invalid

(1) A vote cast is invalid if—

(a) the ballot paper is torn into two or more parts; or

(b) where the voting is by placing a mark of choice on the ballot paper—

(i) the voter marks the ballot paper with a mark other than the authorised mark of choice; or

(ii) places the authorised mark of choice on the ballot paper in such a way that the choice of the voter cannot be reasonably ascertained.

(2) No ballot paper shall be taken as invalid under this section irrespective of where the authorised mark of choice is placed, so long as the voter's choice can be reasonably ascertained.

(3) A vote which is invalid shall not be counted in determining the results of the election.

51. Declaration of results forms

(1) Each presiding officer shall fill the necessary number of copies of the prescribed form for the declaration of results as follows—

(a) one copy of the completed form shall remain attached to the report book referred to in paragraph (c) of subsection (1) of section 9;

(b) one copy shall be retained by the presiding officer for display at the polling station;

(c) one copy shall be enclosed in an envelope supplied by the Commission for the purpose, sealed by the presiding officer and delivered to the nearest result collection centre prescribed by the returning officer, together with the report book, for transmission to the returning officer;

(d) one copy shall be delivered to each of the candidates' agents or, in the absence of those agents, to any voters present claiming to represent the candidates; and

(e) one copy shall be deposited and sealed in the ballot box.

(2) The presiding officer shall, in the presence of the candidates and the candidates' agents as may wish to be present, seal the ballot box with a seal provided for the purpose by the Commission.

(3) The sealed ballot box referred to in subsection (2) shall contain the following items—

- (a) one duly signed declaration of results form;
- (b) the ballot papers received by each candidate, tied in separate bundles;
- (c) the invalid ballot papers, tied in one bundle;
- (d) the spoilt ballot papers, tied in one bundle;
- (e) the unused ballot papers; and
- (f) the voters roll used at the polling station.

(4) The declaration of results form referred to in subsection (1) shall be signed by the presiding officer and the candidates or their agents as are present and wish to do so, and the presiding officer shall there and then, announce the results of the voting at that polling station before communicating them to the returning officer.

52. Collection of results

(1) A returning officer may appoint one or more persons for the purpose of collecting the results of the poll from a given number of results collecting centres prescribed by him or her and each person shall, on delivering the results to the returning officer, sign the prescribed declaration of delivery of results form.

(2) Each presiding officer shall, without any delay after closing the poll, transmit or deliver to the returning officer or to the nearest results collecting centre—

- (a) the sealed ballot box;
- (b) the duly filled and signed declaration of results form;
- (c) the report book filled in and signed by the presiding officer and the polling assistants.

53. Safe keeping of election materials and records

(1) The returning officer shall be responsible for the safe custody of all the election documents used in the district in connection with an election until the documents are destroyed in accordance with the directions of the Commission.

(2) A returning officer shall, on receipt of each ballot box—

- (a) take every precaution for its safe custody;
- (b) examine the seal affixed to the ballot box, with a view to ensuring that the box is properly sealed; and
- (c) if the box is not in good order, record his or her observations and affix a different seal supplied by the Commission.

54. Tallying of the results by the returning officer

(1) After all the envelopes containing the declaration of results forms have been received the returning officer shall, in the presence of the candidates or their agents or such of them as wish to be present, open the envelopes and add up the number of votes cast for each candidate as recorded on each form.

(2) The returning officer may open the envelopes and add up the number of votes cast even though some of the envelopes have not been received, if the candidates or the candidates' agents and a police officer not below the rank of Inspector of Police are present.

(3) Where any envelope under subsection (1) does not contain the results of the poll, the returning officer may, for the purpose of finalising a statement of the poll, use the declaration of results form in the presiding officer's report book and if the report book does not contain the declaration of results form duly filled by the presiding officer, the returning officer may, in the presence of a police officer, not below the rank of Inspector of Police and any of the candidates or candidates' agents who wish to be present, open the ballot box in order to obtain the declaration of results form for the purpose of adding up the results of the poll.

(4) Where the returning officer opens the ballot box under subsection (2) he or she shall re-seal the ballot box immediately after ascertaining the results with the declaration of results forms re-sealed in the envelopes in the ballot box.

55. Cases of mandatory recount

(1) Where, after the official addition of the votes—

(a) there is an equality of votes between two or more candidates obtaining the highest number of votes; or

(b) the number of votes separating the candidate receiving the highest number of votes and any other candidate is less than fifty,

the returning officer shall, if requested in writing by a candidate, a candidates' agent or a voter registered to vote in the constituency, in the presence of a senior police officer recount the votes after giving a written notice of the intention to recount to all interested parties.

(2) Where a recount under this section results in an equality of votes among two or more candidates obtaining the highest number of votes, a run off election shall be held involving only the candidates with equal votes; and the election shall take place not later than thirty days from the date of the recount.

56. Application to Chief Magistrate for a recount

(1) Within seven days after the date on which a returning officer has, in accordance with section 59, declared as elected the candidate who has obtained the highest number of votes, any candidate may apply to the Chief Magistrate for a recount.

(2) The Chief Magistrate shall appoint the time to recount the votes which time shall be within four days after receipt of the application under subsection (1) and the recount shall be conducted in accordance with the directions of the Chief Magistrate.

(3) A candidate who requests a recount under this section shall deposit with the Chief Magistrate a security for costs of thirty currency points.

57. Recovery costs of recount

(1) Where a recount under section 56 does not alter the result of the poll as to affect the declaration by the returning officer under section 59, the court may order the costs of the candidate declared to be paid by the person who applied for the recount.

(2) The monies deposited as security for costs shall, so far as necessary, be paid out to the candidate in whose favour costs are awarded and, if the deposit is insufficient to cover the costs, the court shall order the liable party to pay the balance.

58. Interruption or postponement of counting, tallying or recounting

(1) Where counting, tallying or recounting of votes is interrupted by a riot or violence or any other cause, the presiding officer or returning officer shall adjourn the counting, tallying or recounting to the next day or to any other time of the same day and shall immediately inform—

(a) in the case of the presiding officer, the returning officer; or

(b) in the case of the returning officer, the Commission, of that fact.

(2) Where the counting, tallying or recounting of votes is adjourned to the following day under subsection (1), the time, procedure and manner of the subsequent counting, tallying or recounting shall be as on the original occasion.

(3) Where counting is adjourned under this section, the ballot boxes shall be kept in safe custody and the candidates or their agents shall be entitled to be present to keep watch on the boxes until counting resumes.

59. Declaration of winning candidate

(1) Each returning officer shall, immediately after the addition of the votes under subsection (1) of section 54, or after any recount, declare elected the candidate who has obtained the largest number of votes by completing a return in the prescribed form.

(2) Upon completing the return, every returning officer shall transmit to the Commission the following documents—

(a) the return form;

(b) a report of the elections within the returning officer's electoral district;

(c) the tally sheets; and

(d) the declaration of results forms from which the official addition of the votes was made.

(3) Where a returning officer receives notice of a recount under section 56 of this Act, he or she shall delay transmission of the return and report for the constituency in question until he or she has received from the court a certificate of the results of recount.

60. Declaration of results and reports by the Commission

(1) The Commission shall, as soon as practicable after the election, ascertain, declare in writing under its seal and publish in the Gazette, the results of the election in each constituency.

(2) The Commission shall, as soon as practicable after each general election, produce a detailed report on the conduct of the election and submit it to the Minister who shall in turn present it before Parliament.

(3) For the purposes of a report under subsection (2), every candidate at an election and every official agent of any candidate has the right to send to the Commission a statement in writing containing any complaint that he or she may wish to make with respect to the conduct of the election or of any election officer and any suggestions with respect to such changes or improvements in the law or in the administration arrangements as he or she may consider desirable.

PART X—ELECTION PETITIONS.

61. Who may present election petition

(1) Election petitions under this Act shall be filed in the High Court.

(2) An election petition may be filed by any of the following persons—

(a) a candidate who loses an election; or

(b) a registered voter in the constituency concerned supported by the signatures of not less than five hundred voters registered in the constituency in a manner prescribed by regulations.

(3) Every election petition shall be filed within thirty days after the day on which the result of the election is published by the Commission in the Gazette.

(4) For the purposes of this section, where any rules of court require a petition to be filed in any particular registry of the High Court, the filing of the petition in a registry of the High Court other than in the first-mentioned registry shall not invalidate the petition; and the registrar at the place where it is filed shall take necessary steps to cause the petition to be transferred to the appropriate registry but the court may award costs in respect of such filing.

62. Grounds for setting aside election

(1) The election of a candidate as a member of Parliament shall only be set aside on any of the following grounds if proved to the satisfaction of the court—

(a) non-compliance with the provisions of this Act relating to elections, if the court is satisfied that there has been failure to conduct the election in accordance with the principles laid down in those provisions and that the non-compliance and the failure affected the result of the election in a substantial manner;

- (b) that a person other than the one elected won the election; or
- (c) that an illegal practice or any other offence under this Act was committed in connection with the election by the candidate personally or with his or her knowledge and consent or approval; or
- (d) that the candidate was at the time of his or her election not qualified or was disqualified for election as a member of Parliament.

(2) Where an election is set aside, then, subject to section 64, a fresh election shall be held as if it were a by-election in accordance with section 4 of this Act.

(3) Any ground specified in subsection (1) of this section shall be proved on the basis of a balance of probabilities.

63. Notice of petition to be served on respondent

Notice in writing of the presentation of petition accompanied by a copy of the petition shall, within seven days after the filing of the petition, be served by the petitioner on the respondent or respondents, as the case may be.

64. Trial of election petitions

(1) Every election petition, filed under this Act, shall be tried in open court.

(2) The High Court shall proceed to hear and determine the matter expeditiously and may, for that purpose suspend any other matter pending before it.

(3) If, on the trial of an election petition it is proved that any person who voted for a candidate—

- (a) was bribed or subjected to undue influence by the candidate or anyone acting on behalf of the candidate; or
- (b) was guilty of personation or of an illegal practice or was not qualified or was disqualified as a voter at the election; or
- (c) subject to section 11 of this Act, voted more than once at the election;

then without prejudice to any other consequences prescribed for the infringement of any provision of this Act, the vote given for the candidate by that person shall be deducted from the total number of votes given for the candidate at the election.

(4) After due inquiry the court hearing an election petition may—

- (a) dismiss the petition; or
- (b) declare that a candidate other than the candidate declared elected was validly elected; or
- (c) set aside the election and order a new election.

(5) The High Court before coming to a decision under subsection (4), may order a recount of the votes cast.

(6) At the conclusion of the trial of an election petition the court shall determine whether the respondent was duly elected or whether any, and if so which person other than the respondent was or is entitled to be declared duly elected, and if the court determines that—

(a) the respondent was duly elected, the election shall be and remain as valid as if no petition had been presented against the respondent's election;

(b) the respondent was not duly elected but that some other person was or is entitled to be declared duly elected—

(i) the respondent shall be ordered to vacate his or her seat; and

(ii) the court shall certify its determination to the Commission and the Speaker, and the Commission shall thereupon, by notice published in the Gazette, declare that other person duly elected with effect from the day of the determination by the court.

(c) the respondent was not duly elected and that no other person was or is entitled to be declared duly elected—

(i) the seat of the respondent shall be declared vacant; and

(ii) the court shall forthwith, certify its determination to the Clerk to Parliament and the Commission.

(7) Nothing in this Part of this Act shall be construed as conferring on the High Court trying an election petition power to convict a person of an illegal practice or other offence.

(8) At the conclusion of the hearing of an election petition, the High Court shall, if it is of the opinion that a person has been proved to have committed an illegal practice or other offence in connection with the election to which the petition relates, send a written report to the Director of Public Prosecutions stating the name of the person, the nature of the offence and any other information that the court may consider relevant and appropriate for the Director of Public Prosecutions.

(9) The High Court shall determine an election petition before it within twelve months after the petition was lodged in that Court.

65. Witnesses in election petitions

(1) At the trial of an election petition—

(a) any witness shall be summoned and sworn in the same manner as a witness may be summoned and sworn in civil proceedings;

(b) the court may summon and examine any person who, in the opinion of the court is likely to assist the court to arrive at an appropriate decision;

(c) any person summoned by the court under paragraph (b) may be cross-examined by the parties to the petition if they so wish.

(2) A witness who, in the course of the trial of an election petition, wilfully makes a statement of fact material to the proceeding which he or she knows to be false or does not know or believe to be true or in respect of which he or she is reckless whether it is true or false, commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding twenty currency points or imprisonment not exceeding two months or both.

66. Withdrawal of election petitions

(1) An election petition shall not be withdrawn except with leave of the court and after such notice has been given as the court may direct.

(2) On the hearing of the application for withdrawal, any person who might have been a petitioner in respect of the election to which the petition refers may apply to the court to be substituted as a petitioner for the petitioner who desires to withdraw.

(3) The court may substitute as a petitioner an applicant under subsection (2) and may further, if the proposed withdrawal has been, in the opinion of the court, induced by any corrupt bargain or consideration, by order, direct that the security given on behalf of the original petitioner shall remain as security for any costs that may become payable by the substituted petitioner and that the original petitioner shall be liable to pay the costs.

(4) If a petition is withdrawn the petitioner shall be liable to pay the costs of the respondent.

67. Appeals

(1) A person aggrieved by the determination of the High Court on hearing an election petition may appeal to the Court of Appeal against the decision.

(2) The Court of Appeal shall proceed to hear and determine an appeal under this section expeditiously and may, for that purpose, suspend any other matter pending before it.

(3) The decision of the Court of Appeal in an appeal under this section is final.

68. Petition to abate on death of petitioner

An election petition shall abate at the death of the sole petitioner or of all the petitioners.

PART XI—ILLEGAL PRACTICES.

69. Bribery

(1) Any person who, either before or during an election with intent, either directly or indirectly to influence another person to vote or to refrain from voting for any candidate, gives or provides or causes to be given or provided any money, gift or other consideration to that other person, commits the offence of bribery and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding ninety currency points or imprisonment not exceeding three years or both.

(2) Any person who receives any money, gift or other consideration under subsection (1) also commits the offence under that subsection.

(3) Subsection (1) does not apply in respect of the provision of refreshments or food—

(a) offered by a candidate or candidate's agent who provides refreshments or food as an election expense at a candidates' campaign planning and organisation meeting; or

(b) offered by any person other than a candidate or a candidate's agent who, at his or her own expense provides the refreshments or food at a candidates' campaign planning and organisation meeting .

(4) Every candidate or candidate's agent who, by himself or herself or any other person, directly or indirectly, before the close of polls on polling day offers, procures or provides or promises to procure or provide any alcoholic beverage to any person commits an illegal practice.

(5) An offence under subsection (1) shall be an illegal practice.

70. Procuring prohibited persons to vote

Any person who votes or induces or procures any person to vote at an election, knowing that he or she or that person is prohibited by law from voting at that election, commits an illegal practice.

71. Publication of false statements as to illness, death or withdrawal of candidate

Any person who, before or during an election, publishes a false statement of the illness, death or withdrawal of a candidate at that election for the purpose of promoting or procuring the election of another candidate knowing that statement to be false or not knowing or believing it on reasonable grounds to be true, commits an illegal practice.

72. Obstruction of voters

Any person who, at an election, or on nomination days, wilfully obstructs a voter, or an aspiring candidate either at the polling station or nomination centre or on his or her way to or from, the polling station, or nomination centre commits an illegal practice.

73. General penalty for illegal practices

Any person who commits an illegal practice under this Part commits an offence and where no penalty is expressly provided for it, that person is liable to a fine not exceeding twenty currency points or imprisonment not exceeding six months or both.

PART XII—OTHER ELECTION OFFENCES.

74. False statements concerning character of candidates

(1) A person who before or during an election for the purpose of effecting or preventing the election of a candidate, makes or publishes or causes to be made or published by words whether written or spoken, or by song a statement which is false or which he or she knows or has reason to believe to be false or in respect of which he or she is reckless whether it is true or false, in relation to the personal character of another candidate, commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding twenty currency points or imprisonment not exceeding six months or both.

(2) This section does not take away the right of a person to sue for defamation of character.

75. Misconduct at campaign meetings

(1) Any person who, at any campaign meeting relating to an election, acts in a disorderly manner for the purpose of preventing the transaction of the business for which the meeting is held, commits an offence and is liable, on conviction to a fine not exceeding fifteen currency points or imprisonment not exceeding six months or both.

(2) The chairperson of a meeting to which this section applies may direct any person who, in the opinion of the chairperson, is preventing the transaction of the business for which the meeting is being held, to leave the place; and if the person fails or refuses to leave, the chairperson may cause that person to be removed from that place using such force as may be reasonably necessary.

76. Failure by presiding officers to furnish election returns

Any presiding officer who fails without lawful excuse to furnish the returns of the election to the returning officer within the time in which that person is required to furnish those returns, commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding thirty currency points or to imprisonment not exceeding one year or both.

77. Offences relating to voting

Any person who—

- (a) forges or fraudulently defaces or destroys any document relating to the holding of an election, or alters any such document or delivers to the returning officer any document, knowing it to be forged;

- (i) without due authority, prints any ballot paper or what purports to be or is capable of being used as a ballot paper at an election; or
- (j) not being authorised so to do under this Act makes any mark on a ballot paper issued to a person, other than the person making the mark, with intent that the ballot paper shall be used to record the vote of that other person, commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding one hundred and fifty currency points or imprisonment not exceeding five years or both.

78. Unauthorised voting or voting more than once

Any person who knowingly—

- (a) votes at an election at which that person is not entitled to vote; or
- (b) votes more than once at an election,

commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding one hundred and fifty currency points or imprisonment not exceeding five years or both.

79. Making wrong returns of an election

Any election officer, or other person having any duty to perform in relation to an election who—

- (a) makes in any record, return or other document which he or she is required to keep or make under this Act, any entry which he or she knows or has reasonable cause to believe to be false; or
- (b) permits any person whom he or she knows or has reasonable cause to believe not to be a person with disability under subsection (1) of section 38 to vote in the manner provided for such persons under that subsection; or
- (c) refuses to permit any person whom he or she knows or has reasonable cause to believe to be a person with disability under subsection (1) of section 38 to vote in the manner provided for such a person under that subsection; or
- (d) wilfully prevents any person from voting at the polling station at which he or she knows or has reasonable cause to believe that person is entitled to vote; or
- (e) wilfully rejects or refuses to count any paper which he or she knows or has reasonable cause to believe is validly cast in favour of a candidate; or
- (f) wilfully counts any ballot paper as being validly cast in favour of a candidate which he or she knows or has reasonable cause to believe was not validly cast for that candidate; or
- (g) without reasonable cause acts or omits to act in breach of his or her official duty, commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding one hundred and fifty currency points or imprisonment not exceeding five years or both.

80. Personation

(1) Any person who votes as some other person, commits the offence of personation whether that other person is living or dead or is a fictitious person.

(2) A person who commits an offence of personation is liable, on conviction, to imprisonment not exceeding five years.

81. Offence of undue influence

A person commits the offence of undue influence—

- (a) if that person directly or indirectly in person or through any other person—
 - (i) makes use of, or threatens to make use of, any force or violence;
 - (ii) inflicts or threatens to inflict in person or through any other person any temporal or spiritual injury, damage, harm or loss upon or against any person, in order to induce or compel that person to vote or refrain from voting, or on account of that person having voted or refrained from voting; or

(b) if by abduction, duress or any fraudulent device or contrivance, impedes or prevails upon a voter either to vote or to refrain from voting.

82. Prohibition of certain activities on polling day

(1) Without derogation from any other provision of this Act or any other enactment, no person shall, within one hundred metres of any polling station on any polling day—

(a) convoke or take part in any gathering of more than twelve persons;

(b) canvass for votes;

(c) utter any slogan;

(d) distribute leaflets or pamphlets for or on behalf of any candidate; or

(e) organise or engage in public singing or dancing; or

(f) use any band or any musical instrument.

(2) During the hours when a polling station is open on a polling day, no person shall, within two hundred metres of any polling station—

(a) seek to influence, in whatever manner, any person to vote for any candidate or to ascertain for which candidate any voter intends to vote or has voted; or

(b) sell any intoxicating liquor.

(3) Any person who contravenes subsections (1) or (2) of this section commits an offence and is liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding thirty currency points or imprisonment not exceeding one year or both.

83. Defacement of notices and posters

(1) Any person who without lawful excuse, destroys, mutilates, defaces or removes any notice which is exhibited under the authority of this Act or any document which is made available for inspection under any provision of this Act, commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding fifteen currency points or imprisonment not exceeding six months or both.

(2) Any person who maliciously defaces or removes or tears, any election poster of any nominated candidate, commits an offence and is liable, on conviction to a fine not exceeding thirty currency points or imprisonment not exceeding one year or both.

(3) A court which convicts a person of an offence under subsection (1) shall, within fourteen days after the conviction, report the conviction in writing to the Commission.

84. Obstruction of election officers

Any person who wilfully obstructs or interferes with an election officer in the execution of the officer's duty, commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding ninety currency points or imprisonment not exceeding three years or both.

PART XIII—GENERAL.

85. General penalty for offences other than illegal practices

Where no penalty is expressly provided under this Act for an offence other than an illegal practice, the offender is liable, on conviction to a fine not exceeding thirty currency points or imprisonment not exceeding one year or both.

86. Prior consent of the D.P.P to prosecute

(1) A person shall not be prosecuted for an offence under this Act without the consent in writing of the Director of Public Prosecutions.

(2) Subsection (1) shall not prevent a person from being—

(a) charged with an offence under this Act; or

(b) arrested with or without warrant in respect of any such offence; or

(c) remanded on bail or in custody in respect of any such offence, without the consent of the Director of Public Prosecutions.

(3) If no consent is obtained under subsection (1) within three months from the date of arrest or charge, the person charged shall be discharged.

(4) In a prosecution for an offence under this Act in relation to a ballot paper or other document, the property in the ballot paper or other document, as well as the property in the counterfoil of any ballot paper, shall be stated to be vested in the Commission.

87. Time within which criminal proceedings must be commenced

Proceedings against a person in respect of an illegal practice or any other offence under this Act shall be commenced within three months after the offence which is alleged to have been committed or within one month after a court finds, on trial of a petition, that an offence may have been committed.

88. No person to be required to divulge how he or she voted

No person who has voted at an election shall, in any legal proceedings, whether taken to question the election or return or otherwise, be required to state for whom he or she has voted.

89. Penalty for interruption

Any person who wilfully interrupts, obstructs or disturbs any proceeding taken under this Act in connection with an election, or disturbs the peace and good order of any such proceedings, commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding fifteen currency points or imprisonment not exceeding six months or both.

90. Service of notices and documents

(1) A public notice required to be given by any person who under this Act shall, except where it is expressly directed to be published in the Gazette or in any other particular manner, be sufficiently given if it is published in a newspaper circulating in the constituency or area intended to be affected by the notice or if it is posted outside the principal outer door of every magistrates' court office in that constituency or area or in such other place or places, if any, as the Commission may determine.

(2) Except as otherwise specially provided in this Act and without derogation from the provisions of the Interpretation Decree, 1976 when any notice or other document is required to be served on any person under this Act, it may be served—

- (a) by delivering it to the person to whom it is addressed or his or her authorised agent; or
- (b) by leaving it at his or her last known place of residence or any place of residence stated on a voters' roll as his or her place of residence; or
- (c) by sending it to any place of residence referred to in paragraph (b) through the post by registered letter marked upon the outside "electoral notice letter" and, unless the contrary is proved, the notice or other document shall be taken to have been served at the time at which the registered letter would have been delivered in the ordinary course of post.

91. When appointed dates fall on weekend or public holiday

Whenever under this Act anything is required to be commenced, concluded or done on a particular day, and that day happens to fall upon a Saturday or Sunday or public holiday, that thing shall be commenced, concluded or done on the day next succeeding the Sunday or public holiday or, if the last mentioned day is also a Saturday or Sunday or a public holiday, then on the day next succeeding the Sunday or public holiday.

92. Rules of court

(1) The Chief Justice, in consultation with the Attorney-General, may make rules as to the practice and procedure to be observed in respect of any jurisdiction which under this Act is exercisable by the High Court and also in respect of any appeals from the exercise of that jurisdiction.

(2) Without prejudice to subsection (1) any rules made under that subsection may make provision for—

- (a) regulating the practice and procedure of the High Court and the Court of Appeal for the purposes of hearing and determining petitions under section 8 of this Act or as the case may be, for hearing and determining appeals from decisions of the High Court under that section;

- (b) the practice and procedure to be observed in the hearing and determining of election petitions;
- (c) service of an election petition on the respondent;
- (d) priority to be given to the hearing of election petitions and other matters coming before the courts under this Act.

(3) Rules made under this section may, in the case of the High Court and the Court of Appeal, apply to the proceedings the rules of practice and procedure applicable to civil proceedings in the High Court or the Court of Appeal as the case may be, subject to such modifications as may be specified in the rules.

93. Saving in respect of vacation of office

Where as a result of the final determination of an election petition or a petition under section 8 of this Act, the seat of any member of Parliament becomes vacant, the determination of the petition shall not invalidate anything done by that person, during the period preceding the determination, in the purported exercise of the functions of the office of that person.

94. Postponement of vacation of office

(1) When a member of Parliament—

- (a) is adjudged or declared to be of unsound mind; or
- (b) is adjudged or declared bankrupt in terms of paragraph (d) of clause (2) of article 80 of the Constitution; or
- (c) is sentenced to a term of imprisonment in terms of paragraph (e) of clause (2) of article 80 of the Constitution;

the seat of that member shall not become vacant until the expiry of the time within which an appeal may be lodged and where an appeal is lodged, until the appeal is fully disposed of or withdrawn.

(2) Where the High Court declares the seat of a member of Parliament vacant as a result of a petition lodged under section 8, of this Act the decision shall not have the effect of causing that person to vacate his or her seat—

- (a) where no appeal is lodged, until the expiry of the time within which an appeal may be lodged; or
- (b) where an appeal is lodged, the appeal has been fully disposed of or withdrawn.

(3) Where as a result of an election petition the election of a person who has been elected is set aside the decision shall not have the effect of causing that person to vacate his or her seat until—

- (a) where no appeal is lodged, the expiry of the time within which an appeal may be lodged; or
- (b) where an appeal is lodged, the appeal has been fully disposed of or withdrawn.

95. Commission to supervise other elections

The Commission shall have power to oversee and supervise and if requested by the Minister, conduct any election under any enactment preliminary to or directly or indirectly related to any election held or to be held under this Act for the purposes of paragraph (c) of clause (1) of article 78 of the Constitution.

96. Publication in media

Whenever any matter is required to be published in the Gazette, it shall also as soon as practicable, be published in a newspaper circulating in the relevant area.

97. Minister's power to amend First Schedule

The Minister may, by statutory instrument, with the approval of the Cabinet, amend the First Schedule to this Act.

98. Modification of Act pursuant to change in political system under article 74 or 271

(1) Where a new political system is adopted in accordance with article 74 or 271 of the Constitution, the provisions of this Act, and any statutory instruments made under it, shall have effect subject to such modifications as are practical and necessary to give effect to the adoption of the new political system.

(2) Where a new political system is adopted as referred to in subsection (1), the Minister may, with the prior approval of Parliament, make such regulations as may be necessary for giving effect to the change in the political system for the purposes of this Act and may in particular subject to subsection (1), where necessary, by such regulations, make different provision for campaigning than what is prescribed under this Act.

99. Regulations

(1) The Minister may, on the recommendation of the Commission and with the approval of Parliament, by statutory instrument, make regulations prescribing any matter which is required or authorised by this Act to be prescribed or which in his or her opinion is necessary or convenient to be prescribed for carrying out or giving effect to the provisions of this Act other than matters to be prescribed by rules of court.

(2) Without prejudice to the general effect of subsection (1), regulations may be made under that subsection for any or all of the following matters—

- (a) the form of any document to be used in the carrying out any of the purposes of this Act;

- (b) the duties of election officers, including the manner of identifying voters for issuing to them of ballot papers and the questions to be put to them;
- (c) the issue of duplicate voters' registration cards;
- (d) such measures to be taken in connection with an election as may be desirable or expedient to ensure that—
 - (i) employers provide their employees with an opportunity to vote in any election;
 - (ii) candidates are afforded reasonable access to the use of state-owned communication media, for the purposes of complying with clause (2) of article 67 of the Constitution and subsection (1) of section 23 of this Act;
- (e) providing for the procedure for obtaining two thirds for recalling the Member of Parliament under article 84 of the Constitution.

(3) Regulations made under this section may provide in respect of the contravention of the regulations, penalties not exceeding a fine of thirty currency points or imprisonment not exceeding one year or both.

100. Repeal and savings

(1) The Parliamentary Elections (Interim Provisions) Statute, 1996 is repealed.

(2) Notwithstanding the repeal effected by this section, until constituencies are prescribed by Parliament and demarcated by the Commission under article 63 of the Constitution, Uganda shall, in accordance with section 11 of the Electoral Commission Act, 1997, be divided into the constituencies set out in the First Schedule to the Parliamentary Elections (Interim Provisions) Statute, 1996.

(3) Without prejudice to the provisions of the Interpretation Decree, 1976, any statutory instrument, form or other document made under the Parliamentary Elections (Interim Provisions) Statute, 1996 shall continue in force until revoked or replaced under this Act.
